PHI GAMMA'S 35th REUNION HOMECOMING WEEKEND OCTOBER 10 - 12, 1986

Believe it or not Brothers of 1950-- it's been thirty-five years since you founded the Phi-Gamma Chapter. Now over a quarter of a century later and 1,200 initiates later, we are gathering in Gainesville to recount the memories.

The undergraduates are excited and are planning a full array of Alumni activities in addition to the traditional Homecoming festivities.

Kent State University is this year's patsy for the Gators. Growl '86 will be headlined by Mr. Maaaahvelous himself, Billy Crystal of "Soap" and "Saturday Night Live" fame!

Enclosed with this Newsletter is a registration form for Homecoming weekend. We have rooms reserved at the Holiday Inn (Flagler Inn) as well as the University Centre Hotel, Gainesville's newest hotel across from Shands Hospital. It should be noted that the rates are different. If you are at all interested in attending, please fill out the form and return to Bruce M. Singer, no later than August 15, 1986. Any accommodations which have not been reserved by August 15th will be released back to the hotels. Therefore, if you are even thinking of attending, you should make the reservation. Refunds in full will be made should you decide to change your plans at a later date.

A few of the Alumni will be getting together in Miami over the summer to plan the activities. Anyone interested in helping out should contact Bruce M. Singer (305) 865-6736 (305) 672-2750

1950 Fall Frolics

Dear Brothers:

At a recent meeting of the Greater Miami Alumni Club, I was talking with two brothers, each of whom I have known for a number of years. Thus, I was quite surprised to learn they were meeting each other for the first time, having come through the Chapter ten years apart.

It sometimes is difficult to realize that only a few of us, Bruce M. Singer, Dan Simkin, one or two others -- have, by virtue of our ongoing activity, come to know brothers who span many school generations. I also know we all feel richer for it.

Therefore, I welcome this opportunity to urge all of you to attend the 35-year alumni reunion the Chapter is planning for this year's Homecoming, October 10th. It promises to be a great weekend in its own right, with Billy Crystal as the Gator Growl headliner and Kent State as the annual football pushover. Adding a full program of alumni activities should ensure that many brothers who will arrive as strangers will return home as friends.

Bruce has rooms on hold, as well as access to football and Growl tickets. The rest of the itinerary will come to you from the Chapter, and will include activities for wives and kids. Mark your calendars now, and I look forward to seeing you all in Gainesville.

Fraternally,
Allan Wolfe

the Reunion, including a reception at the House on Friday nite after Growl; the traditional before-the-game brunch; Reunion Banquet at the Student Union to be followed by a party; Sunday morning breakfast and "bull session" with the Brothers.
