ALUMNI WEEKEND FALL 2024 11/9/2024

On November 9th, UTK will be hosting its annual homecoming / alumni weekend football game against Mississippi State. We encourage any and all alumni to come by. We would love to meet you guys! If you would like to reach out to us, feel free to email aepi.psideut@gmail.com or DM us on instagram @aepiutk. We hope to see you there!

WELCOME, CLASS RHO!

Just this week, we initiated 5 new men into our brotherhood. This new member class is our largest class in the past 5 years! We want to give a special shout out to our rush chairs, Ben Morris and Anthony DiOrio for conducting such a successful rush and getting us these great new members!

Additionally, we are kicking off our philanthropy season this week. We have already raised $1352 through AEPi national's Mensch Madness, and that is just the beginning. We have a bunch of great events planned for UTK's philanthropy week.

A LETTER FROM THE MASTER

Hello alumni,

Welcome to our first alumni newsletter! My name is Grant Baxter, and I am the Master of AEPi Psi Deuteron. We hope to send out this newsletter a few times a year to keep you updated with the fraternity's events, accomplishments, and future plans. These past two semesters have been great for our fraternity. We have seen our brotherhood grow, our community and campus presence strengthen, and our academic standing improve. In this last year, AEPi has led the charge to advocate for Jewish students and Jewish causes to the university and administrators. In October, we held a vigil for the lives lost on October 7th, and there was a gathering of over 350 Jewish students at The Rock. Currently we are based in the neighborhood of Fort Sanders, but as the university expands in the next few years, there will be possibilities to once again return to campus. At the moment, AEPi has 22 brothers and are looking to add more in the fall. Please reach out if you know any young, Jewish men coming to the University of Tennessee who you feel might be a good fit for our fraternity.

Thank you, and please contact me personally to reach out with anything,

Grant Baxter
