PREPARING FOR ROCK '25

1 BROTHER. 1 CHAIR. 63 HOURS.

We were super excited to kick off Rock-A-Thon 2025 by hosting five of the American Cancer Society's CEO's Against Cancer at the AEPI house for a catered dinner, panel discussion, and Q&A. Joe McKee (Paric), Joe Koenig (World Wide Technology), Andrew Davidson (KPMG), Peter Blumeyer (UMB Bank), and Steve O'Loughlin (Lodging Hospitality Mgmt) gave some of their valuable time to mingle with current brothers and share their knowledge of leadership, business, and philanthropy.

Strategic Communications

The event was a massive success, and it is safe to say the brothers of AEPI made a good impression on these local leaders. Before leaving, each of the executives made a personal contribution to Rock-A-Thon, which has given our event an exciting kick-start.

If you have any old photos, videos, or promotional material from a past Rock-A-Thon, please share those with ryancellis27@gmail.com.

To follow the event, please connect with us on LinkedIn, Instagram, Facebook.
